Letter dated 12 June 2014 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council

I have the honour to refer to the United Nations Mission in South Sudan (UNMISS), established by the Security Council in its resolution 1996 (2011) and most recently extended by the Council in its resolution 2155 (2014).

Following the usual consultations, I should like to inform you of my intention to appoint Lieutenant General Yohannes Gebremeskel Tesfamariam (Ethiopia) as Force Commander of UNMISS. He will replace Major General Delali Johnson Sakyi (Ghana), who completed his assignment in UNMISS on 9 June 2014. I should like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude to Major General Sakyi for his dedication and effective leadership.

I should be grateful if you would bring this matter to the attention of the members of the Security Council.
